For a player to make money, he must build up a store of goods, however it is an uphill battle, and he can be nagged by customers to buy them, and is usually overly focused on selling his wares, until he makes his first sale. Players will note that there is a cutesy little robot called the robot, who works in the shop and helps sell wares. Due to its poor reception, this game is often considered to be a failure, but despite being fairly bad, it had a small cult following in Europe. The game can be seen as either a more humorous addition to the franchise or a completely unnecessary side series with no focus other than on making a few more coins. Along with its lack of success, it was widely mocked by fans as a clunky and lazy attempt at recreating the same formula as the main series. The game would later go on to have a spin-off in the form of Burger Time, which was well received by fans. The game was received poorly by fans, but received critical acclaim by critics, with praise going to the game's puzzles and mini-games. The game won 'The Worst Game of All Time' award at the 2009 Golden Joystick Awards. As of 2019, the developer's Facebook page for the game indicates that it is still in active development. The game can be viewed as either a parody of the franchise or an unnecessary side series with no focus other than on making more money. STEREO (5.1) Cinesamples - VOXOS [KONTAKT] Keygen.
